Period for Reply

A SHORTENED STATUTORY PERIOD FOR REPLY IS SET TO EXPIRE 3 MONTH(S) FROM THE MAILING DATE OF THIS COMMUNICATION.

- Extensions of time may be available under the provisions of 37 CFR 1.136(a). In no event, however, may a reply be timely filed after SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- If the period for reply specified above is less than thirty (30) days, a reply within the statutory minimum of thirty (30) days will be considered timely.
- If NO period for reply is specified above, the maximum statutory period will apply and will expire SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- Failure to reply within the set or extended period for reply will, by statute, cause the application to become ABANDONED (35 U.S.C. § 133). Any reply received by the Office later than three months after the mailing date of this communication, even if timely filed, may reduce any earned patent term adjustment. See 37 CFR 1.704(b).

DETAILED ACTION

1. Claims 1-6 are presented for examination.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

2. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(e) the invention was described in a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention thereof by the applicant for patent, or on an international application by another who has fulfilled the requirements of paragraphs (1), (2), and (4) of section 371(c) of this title before the invention thereof by the applicant for patent.

3. Claims 1-6 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Peters et al. (2002/0116411) (hereinafter Peters).

4. As per claim 1, Peters discloses a method for providing user control over alternative URL direction using a computer having an installed web browser and a block program comprising the steps of:

entering a URL (112, fig 1, pages 2-2, paragraph 30);

determining whether there is an exact match for the URL (pages 2-3, paragraph 30); responsive to a determination that there is not an exact match for the URL (114, fig 1), displaying an invalid URL message and querying the user as to whether the user will accept an alternative URL (120, fig 1, page 3, paragraph 31); and responsive to a determination that the user will accept the alternate URL (124, fig 1), sending the user to the alternative URL (126, 116, fig 1).

5. As per claim 2, Peters discloses to a determination that the user will not accept the alternative URL (210, fig 2), determining whether the user will try a different URL (310 , fig 3); and responsive to a determination that the user will try the different URL, entering the different URL (page 31, paragraph 30).

6. As per claim 3, Peters discloses the user with the option of entering another URL after the user has finished with the original URL, and responsive to a determination that the user will try another URL, entering another URL (alternate, 114, 118, fig 1, page 31, paragraph 30).

7. As per claim 4, Peters discloses the user with the option of entering another URL after the user has finished with the alternative URL, and responsive to a determination that the user will try another URL, entering another URL (114, 118, fig 1, alternate, page 31, paragraph 30).

8. As per claim 5, the claim is rejected for the same reasons as claim 1, above. In addition peters discloses using a first computer (page 4, paragraph 57), powering the first computer; accessing the internet with the computer (page 4, paragraph 57); communicating a URL request in a browser installed on the first computer (114, 118, fig 1, page 2, paragraph, 30).

9. As per claim 6, the claim is rejected for same reasons as claim 5, above.
